HONORABLE JAMES E. HENSON'S RESPONSE
TO FIRST REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION OF DOCUMENTS

COMES NOW the Honorable James E. Henson, by and through his undersigned attorney, and pursuant to Rule 12 of the Rules of the Florida Judicial Qualifications Commission, responds to the First Request for Production of Documents dated January 16, 2004 and states:

1. Objection, attorney-client privilege.
2. Objection, attorney-client privilege.
3. Objection, attorney-client privilege.
4. Objection, attorney-client privilege.
5. None.
6. Objection, attorney-client privilege. Without waiving said objection, there were oral communications between myself and Robert Nesmith regarding the representation of Diana Jimenez. I have not been able to locate any written communications.
7. It is possible that I may have had business cards printed up for a private practice before my term actually expired. I am attempting to determine exactly when these were printed. A copy of one of these business cards is attached.
8. Business cards only. Assuming that this asks for receipts from the beginning of August 2000 to the end of January 2001, enclosed is a check stub from Documart dated January 5, 2001 for business cards. If additional receipts are located for this time period, these will be provided.

9. There are no written communications. There were various oral communications between myself and Daniel Newlin relating to Robert Cockcroft, Jr.

10. See attached stop payment order to First National Bank of Florida dated 10/17/02.

11. See attached bank statement dated 1/31/01 (note information not related to Jimenez fee redacted) and deposit slip dated 1/2/01. (There may have been other later deposits of fee in this case. If and when any later fee deposits are located, they will be provided.)

I HEREBY CERTIFY that a true and correct copy of the foregoing has been furnished by U.S. Mail this ____ day of February, 2004 to THOMAS C. MacDONALD, JR., ESQ., General Counsel for the Florida Judicial Qualifications Commission, 1904 Holly Lane, Tampa, Florida 33629; MARK HULSEY, ESQ. and E.
